WAR FUND DRIVE TO START

October 25th With Parade—
Quota for Hancock County
$3400.00

W. J. Gex, County Chairman National War Drive announces that the drive will open October 25 through November 5 with a county quota of $3400.

Mrs. George R. Rea, county director of the Hancock County Chapter of the American Red Cross has been opened at Bay High School with the Junior Red Cross of Bay High making the dressings and Mrs. Juanita E. Erwin as supervisor.

One of the rooms in the school building has been equipped for this work and it has been arranged that girls can be engaged in making surgical dressings at all times of the day according to the time that they will have to give during free periods, hence a great deal of work is being accomplished.

A Similar Surgical Dressings room has been opened at Kiln School which is being operated under the supervision of Mrs. Cornelius Favre. The workers at this surgical dressings room have been working all of last summer, the women and girls of the Kiln community rendering a splendid service in this manner.

The War Department recently advised the Hancock Chapter that all chapters were being asked to complete their present quotas of surgical dressings on hand and have them shipped before the end of this year. When this message was received by Hancock Co. Chapter of the American Red Cross, a concerted effort was made and an appeal to all the women in the county to assist, and the County Chairman, Mrs. Stella Gex, wishes through this medium to thank the women for their splendid response and good work, through which with continued diligence every indication points to our quota of surgical dressings being completed on scheduled time.

The Surgical Dressings Room in Bay St. Louis is located on the second floor of the Masonic Temple and is opened from Mondays through Fridays, mornings and afternoons, and also on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Following is a schedule of the time and the captains in charge of the work.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings—Mrs. Harry L. Witter.
Tuesday afternoons: Mesdames W. D. Bourgeois, Charles Clark, H. L. Kergosien.
Wednesday afternoon: Mrs. W. J. Gex, Jr. and Mrs. H. A. Gregory.
Thursday afternoon: Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Sr., Mrs. Chas. Flink, and Mrs. Paula Jenks.
Friday: Mrs. Leo Ford and Mrs. A. Vassalli.

Evenings from 8:00 until 10:00: Mrs. S. J. Ingram, Mrs. L. Ansley, Mrs. Margaret Zimmerman and Miss Mary Perkins.

Friday: Mrs. Leo Ford and Mrs. A. Vassalli.

Evenings from 8:00 until 10:00: Mrs. S. J. Ingram, Mrs. L. Ansley, Mrs. Margaret Zimmerman and Miss Mary Perkins.

Mrs. Leo W. Seal, Chairman of Volunteer Special Services, wishes in behalf of the Hancock County Camp and Hospital Council, to thank everyone who so generously contributed cash and donations of furniture, furnishings, etc., towards the Day Room at Gulfport Field which this Council volunteered to outfit.

Visitors to the room state it is a credit to the local Council and serving a splendid purpose in furnishing a comfortable lounge for the boys there.

Reporting on the work in the Surgical Dressings Department of the Hancock County Chapter of the American Red Cross, we learn that 12,605 surgical dressings were completed by the different branches of the chapter engaged in this work.

A branch of the Junior Red Cross located at Bay High School was organized recently to do surgical dressings and Mrs. Juanita J. Erwin is in charge of this work there.

Lieutenant John F. Carrere, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Carrere of Waveland, recently writing home stated that "it was" and other girls received from the Red Cross while overseas were greatly appreciated, and were definitely morale boosters when issued boys arriving at far-off ports and battle fields and stated that the boys felt like Christmas time was at hand.

James, an ardent fisherman and hunter, has already been after the fish and game, and is happy to report splendid luck. Being the excellent marksman that he is, his luck at hunting seems a matter of good shooting.

OCTOBER MEETING S. J. A. PARENTS CLUB TUESDAY, OCT. 5TH.

Good Attendance—Splendid
Plans Made for Fall
Activities

With its President, Mrs. H. L. Kergosien, presiding, and the other officers for this session in their places, namely, Mesdames R. Boh, vice-president, T. Hendrix, Treasurer and L. S. Elliott, secretary, the October meeting of St. Joseph Academy Parents Club was held at the Convent on last Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance and several activities planned for this fall.

A plan was discussed for providing for a portico, or large awning from the stairway and entrance to the school buildings to protect the students from rain when entering cars in inclement weather. Mrs. R. Boh and Mrs. A. Vassalli were named a committee of two to take charge of this plan.

Mesdames L. M. Gex and F. R. Curran were named on the committee for providing for Christmas boxes for the girls and boys at the Natchez orphanages.

Mrs. Kergosien stated that due to the activities of the recent Bond Drive, the membership drive had been held in abeyance, although Mrs. Leo Ford, chairman, gave in a nice sum of money on the preliminary work she had accomplished.

Mrs. G. F. Stevenson was named Publicity Chairman for this year. After the business of the meeting, Sister Pauline's class was adjudged the winner of the attendance prize.

Several students from Sister Frances Xavier's class presented a short program of recitation and song which was excellently given and greatly enjoyed by the mothers attending the meeting. The girls participating were Jean Tallac, Geraldine Martin, Carol Ann Betzer, Mary Ann Cefalu and Betty Jean Vassalli.

After the meeting, a pleasant social hour was enjoyed with the hostesses Mesdames H. L. Kergosien and Roger Boh, serving refreshments of delicious sandwiches and iced drinks.

The membership drive is now open for St. Joseph Academy Parents Club and due to the gasoline and tire rationing, the parents of every student are requested to join and assist the ladies on the Membership Committee by sending in their membership fee of 50c each where possible and not wait until they are contacted personally as in many instances, it will create a hardship on persons to reach parents who live a distance away.

The primary object of the Club is to assist the children and faculty and provide funds to assist wherever greater comfort can be given and every parent and friend of the school is urged to become a member of the S. J. A. Parents Club.

STATEMENT FROM ROLAND B. WALL

ROLAND B. WALL
TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY:

Convinced I have a proposed post-war road building program that will fit the needs of this District, I earnestly request that you go to the polls November 2 and vote for me for Highway Commissioner.

I am an independent Democratic candidate opposed by a monied political ring attempting to control the expenditure of your tax money, state and federal.

You will remember in my formal announcement three weeks ago I advocated the drafting of a board post-war construction program of Farm to Market roads that would give our boys work when they return home. I am glad to see the Highway Department last week saw fit to follow and adopt in part the plan I had previously proposed.

Perhaps a lot of you in this county do not know that there is at work in this state today one of the most dangerous political rings in the history of this state. This ring is supporting Political Contractor Bush for this important position. Bush and his road equipment has been making huge profits through their contracts with government agencies on war jobs in this state.

While he has been making these big profits, hundreds of truck owners throughout the Southern District, who did not have political tie-ups were denied the opportunity to use their trucks at a time when they were begging for employment so they might earn money to pay notes on their trucks.

Perhaps a lot of you will be surprised to know a number of state employees are today riding the highways of this district, using state-owned automobiles trying to tell you people how to vote.

I have had a conference with Governor-elect Bailey and he has assured me that he is absolutely NOT taking any part in this campaign.

I appeal to the people of this county to help me all you can, I need your aid to stop this powerful machine.

Sincerely yours,
ROLAND B. WALL
Candidate, Highway Commissioner
Southern (Second) District.
—Paid Advt.

Clement R. Bontemps Post Exceeds 1943 Membership

The Mississippi Veteran carries the following item which is of interest to Bay St. Louisians: "The Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139 located at Bay St. Louis under the leadership of Frank J. Cassidy has the honor and distinction of being the first post in the Mississippi Department to exceed its entire 1943 membership. Starting its drive early, the post had more than 50 1943 members enrolled by September 30, thus leading the way and setting an example for the other posts throughout the state.

The 1943 membership totaled 40 and the boys there say they hope to double this number before long.

Community service has played a big part in the success of the drive. The boys at Bay St. Louis know how to get the job done.

Bryan Graham is adjutant of the post.

A meeting was held here on Friday, October 8 and plans were formulated for a party to be given next month.

DR. EMMET IRWIN SPEAKER AT LOCAL ROTARY MEETING

Gives Reasons For Opposing
The Murray-Wagner
Bill Now Before Senate

Dr. Emmet Irwin of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis was guest speaker for opposing the Murray-Wagner Bill on Wednesday.

In his address Dr. Irwin gave his and the Medical Association's reasons for opposing the Murray-Wagner bill now before the Senate which will, if passed, socialize medicine. The speaker said that here are some good points in the bill but many bad points, and that it is the duty of every American citizen to use his voice in opposition to any legislation that is not 100 per cent for the good of the country.

The American Medical Association is against Government control of the practice of medicine, pharmacy, etc., because this would create a situation in which the doctor's concern would be to satisfy the government rather than the patient.

"If socialized medicine goes into effect," continued Dr. Irwin, "then treatments and prescriptions would be standardized and common to all patients, and this would curb the doctor's desire for improvement in individual treatment—in other words the doctor's individual incentive would be killed."

Dr. Irwin fears that there is a sinister influence among the law makers and this is just the beginning of a wedge to open up socialization of the entire nation.

Proponents of the Bill use the argument that medicine is socialized in Europe and this is our strongest reason for opposing the passage of this bill in the United States.

Dr. Irwin said that two important freedoms were left out of the Atlantic Charter, namely—freedom of movement and freedom of enterprise. In conclusion Dr. Irwin made a plea to his listeners to use all they had in the opposition of the passage of the bill saying that the boys who are fighting for freedom would not like to return to a country having a socialistic government.

Dr. Irwin was introduced by H. L. Kergosien, vice-president, of the Rotary Club.

S. S. Eliza Jane Nicholson Launched last Saturday

The S. S. Eliza Jane Nicholson which was launched in the Industrial Canal at 3 p. m. on Saturday, October 2 was the 80th ship built by the Delta Shipbuilding Company. The ship was named for Mrs. Eliza Jane Nicholson, a pioneer in newspaper circles and former editor of the Daily Picayune a predecessor of the Times-Picayune.

She was born in 1849 at Gainesville in Hancock County and was the former Miss Eliza Jane Poitevant. She first achieved recognition with her poetry penned under the name of "Pearl Rivers" and soon she had accepted the position of literary editor of the Daily Picayune. Her two sons Leonard K. and Yorke P. are president and first vice president of the Times-Picayune and the latter's daughter Miss Elizabeth Lee Nicholson was the sponsor for the ship.

Thirty-six cadet midshipmen from the Merchant Marine Basic Training School at Pass Christian were guests for the launching.

MOTHER RECEIVES NEWS FROM SON A PRISONER OF WAR

"If your son is a prisoner of war in any of the foreign countries, just pray and pray fervently," says Mrs. Emily Fountain formerly of Bay St. Louis and now of Pass Christian, "and your prayers will be answered."

To the Mothers of America she says, "Do not lose hope."

Mrs. Fountain's son, Benny Messick, has been a prisoner of war in Germany for many months, and for the past six months she had received no word whatsoever from him, and although torn with anguish and the fear of what might have happened to him, she has refused to give up hope. Ardently in her faith in God and the power of prayer, Mrs. Fountain called up a group of her friends to mingle their prayers with hers in an almost desperate appeal for word from her son.

These prayers were answered almost simultaneously and we quote herewith Mrs. Fountain's letter received from her son: 10/5/43

"My Dearest mother and family: I am hoping that all are well and happy. I am just that—never felt better in my life. Mother please do not worry about me. Everything is O. K. Tell all the family hello for me. Tell them that they are in my every thought. I am expecting a letter from you soon. That will be the day for me. If you send packages, please contact Red Cross. There isn't much for me to say, except that I love you more than ever. Hope to see you soon. May God bless and keep you. Ben."

WAR RATION BOOK 4 TO BE ISSUED OCTOBER 20, 21, 22 AND 23

Places of Registration In County Designated by Local Ration Board—Civilian Defense and School Teachers
To Conduct Registration.

War Ration Book 4, will be issued in Mississippi, October 20, 21, 22 and 23, it was announced by Major W. E. Holcomb, State Director of the OPA.

The books will be issued by volunteer workers at the sites selected in each community by the Local War Price and Rationing Board.

The regulations for the issuance of Book No. 4 have been simplified as follows:

1. The person making application for the new book must have Book No. 3 with him for each member of the family for whom he is applying for the new ration book.

2. Any member of the family may register for the entire family.

3. The application for the new book calls only for the names, address, sex, and ages of the members of the family.

War Ration Book Nos. 1 and 2 were issued by volunteers principally school teachers over the state, while Ration Book No. 3 was issued by volunteers in Jackson, who worked for several weeks in preparing the books for over two million persons.

Though the responsibility for selecting volunteers and registration sites is the responsibility of the Local War Price and Rationing Boards, State Superintendent of Education J. S. Vandiver has informed the State OPA Office that the school teachers of Mississippi stand ready again to do this mammoth job and it is expected that a large portion of the volunteers in each community will be members of the local school faculties.

Major Holcomb praised highly the work of these teachers and other volunteers and asked them again to assist in the issuance of War Ration Book No. 4.

"It is men and women like you who have made it possible for Mississippians to secure their food and we want you to know that the State OPA Office and the members of your local War Price and Rationing Boards appreciate your cooperation in this patriotic enterprise. May we ask you again to assist us in the distribution of Book No. 4." Major Holcomb said.

All persons are urged to secure their new books during the registration days.

In Hancock County registration for Book 4 will be conducted by the Office of Civilian Defense of which Mrs. Geo. R. Rea is Chairman, in cooperation with the school teachers of the County, on October 20, 21, 22, and 23.

The places of registration will be as follows:

Mrs. J. T. Wolfe, in charge of the Cafeteria, talked to the group on what the lunch room is doing in the way of school lunches.

S. J. Ingram, superintendent city schools, explained why the school did not accept Federal Aid for school lunch programs.

The Vlt-a-min-gos games was explained by Mrs. Erwin.

Mrs. Carl Smith, head of the music department and Miss Jean Robin rendered a piano duo.

The first grade won the flag and shield for having the greatest number of mothers present. Mrs. Richard Shadoin was named publicity chairman.

The membership committee, Mrs. Leo Seal and Mrs. Harold B. Weston reported that the quota of 175 had been exceeded by 125 bringing the membership up to 300.

The first grade won the membership prize, a picnic, for enrolling the largest number of members with the fourth grade as a runner up and the seventh grade ranking third in the run off.

WAR RATION BOARD COLUMN

The October quota for new passenger tires available for rationing has been reduced by one-fifth, Leo G. Ford, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board, announced today.

This reduction reflects the low level of tire stocks throughout the country he said.

This quota is in line with a recent OPA action to cut down the ration demand for new tires by raising mileage requirements. Beginning October 1, only those car owners who need to drive 601 miles, or more, a month, were eligible for new tires, Leo G. Ford said.

Eligibility for new tires was restricted on advice of the Office of the Rubber Director that the country faces a shortage of new tires until the new synthetic tires can be produced in adequate quantity to replace the dwindling supply of pre-war tires, the chairman pointed out.

Truck tire quotas were also cut approximately 15 percent. October quotas for other types of tires had for tubes remain virtually unchanged, except for farm tractor and implement tires which will be reduced in number because of seasonal decline in demand, he said.

The following are the ceiling prices on shot gun shells. None of the stores in this County will be allowed to sell beyond these listed. They can, however, sell at prices below these. Any violations of these prices should be reported at once to the local war price and ration board.

Persons applying for Ration Book No. 4, which will be distributed through school houses and other public buildings October 20, 21, 22 and 23, must bring a copy of Book No. 3 for each member of the family for whom application is being made. Mr. Ford, chairman of the Hancock County War Price and Rationing Board has announced.

Presentation of Book No. 3 it was explained, will provide a speedy method of establishing identity and eligibility and an individual may obtain new books for each member of a family living at the same address.

With stocks of coffee in the U. S. increasing and the outlook for imports favorable, OPA has denied rumors that coffee rationing is to be resumed. These rumors apparently were based on the fact that Ration Book No. 4 contains coupons marked "Coffee." OPA explained, however, that the books were printed before coffee was removed from the list of rationed foods.

Finders of lost ration books may now return them to their owners by depositing them in the mails without wrapper or postage under an arrangement between OPA and the postoffice. The postoffice will deliver the books to the person whose name and address appear on the cover and will collect a five-cent "postage due" charge. If the address can not be located the postoffice will deliver the book to the nearest war price and rationing board.

THE NATIONAL WAR FUND DESERVES OUR SUPPORT

THE present war has brought more sorrow and human suffering into the world than any incident since the fall of man in the Garden of Eden.

The bitterness of the war has touched homes in every community in America, and each family either has a member or a close relative now in the service. Some homes have felt the shock of war worse than others. A good many in our own community have already received wires which begin . . . "We regret to inform you . . ." and no doubt many more will receive such wires before victory is won.

If there was ever a time when Christian people should share their burdens with one another, it is now. Chaos is staring the world in the face from every angle. Truly, it often appears that human life has become one of the cheapest items on the market.

But when we study the situation closely, we find this is not true. At heart, the great majority of civilized people still possess a love for their fellow man, and want to see him live in peace and happiness.

The National War Fund is concrete evidence that brotherly love still exists among our people. Because the sole purpose of the NWF is to relieve human suffering right here in our own neighborhood, among our soldiers, sailors and marines now away from home, and among our gallant allies in occupied and unoccupied areas. It will repair broken hearts and homes, and salvage hope and life out of despair.

Seventeen war-appeal agencies, such as the USO, and all local relief groups have joined hands under the banner of the NWF, to serve the human side of the war. Only one campaign, however, will be staged for all.

Our drive starts October 25. From then until November 5, each citizen of our community will be asked to make a single contribution. This unified plan to relieve suffering humanity—"to win the war sooner and with a minimum loss of life"—is to be commended. It deserves our serious consideration and generous support.

SEEKING AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA

NOTHING could be sillier than the parrot-like chant of some people in the United States and Great Britain that there must be an immediate agreement with Soviet Russia.

If the people of the democratic nations devote themselves exclusively to the building up of pressure for an agreement, they are only adding to the difficulties which will confront our statesmen in their conference with Russia.

Obviously, an agreement is possible with Russia, at any time, upon Russian terms. If our diplomats are compelled to have an agreement, just to quiet the mouthings of their people, Stalin can get everything that he wants and some things besides, by keeping his mouth shut and sitting tight.

While it is entirely sensible to desire an agreement between the United States and Great Britain, on the one hand, and Russia, on the other, it is only intelligent to appreciate the importance of some qualifying adjectives like just, sincere and friendly.

If Secretary Hull, and our other representatives, are to go to Moscow, compelled under the whirlwind of public opinion to secure an agreement at any cost, there is hardly any use for them to make the trip. The blank check could be signed by the President and sent to Moscow by air mail.

There is no reason to believe that an agreement with Russia is not only possible, but probable. To be valuable, however, and to have a chance to become a permanent arrangement, the agreement must recognize the interests of the respective countries.

Upon matters vital to Russia the United States and Great Britain must be prepared to compromise. The Soviet, in its turn, must be prepared to cooperate with its Anglo-American Allies.

It might be a good idea for the diplomats, and the people of all free countries, to understand that in reaching an agreement, it will not be possible for any one country to secure the fulfillment of all of its desires. The agreement must represent an intelligent mean between conflicting ambitions, principles and hopes.

GENERAL MARSHALL'S REGRET

DESPITE Congressional and newspaper reports to the contrary there is complete harmony among high officials of the Army and between it and the Administration.

This is the statement of General George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff, who recently appeared before the House Military Affairs Committee.

General Marshall did not say what "new job" had been assigned to him but he authorized Representative May, of Kentucky, chairman of the committee, to make public the fact that "anything that was done was done with his approval."

The Chief of Staff admitted that some statement made about this matter had caused him "very deep regret and deep concern" and were seriously affecting the war effort. The statements should not be repeated, he said.

The allegation that Lieutenant General Brehon B. Somervell, Chief of Army Service Forces was seeking or being sought, to supplant General Marshall caused General Marshall to add that he "greatly resents" such reference to his "key man" and that he "considers it harmful to Army morale."

Pulpwood, to Paper, to Victory

SECOND of a picture series illustrating the many uses of pulpwood paper and its role in the war. Because the pulpwood fibre containers used by Uncle Sam must have unusual strength and durability under all conditions, workers of the Ammunition Container Corporation insert an intermediate tube in an outer tube. Glue is then applied to hold it in place and to make each unit damptight.

PROPOSED ROAD PROGRAM

The State Highway Commission in session in Jackson last week outlined a proposed road building program which the Commission hopes to initiate as soon as the war ends. The suggested program will involve the expenditure of $75,000,000, three-fourths of which is to be furnished as a grant by the Federal Government. The roads are needed, especially those classed as "Farm to Market Roads," and the huge building program will take care of much unemployment which the state will have at that time. Certain preliminaries are to be planned and worked out so there will be no great delay in getting started, if the plan goes through.

State Tax 2 Mills

Gov. Paul B. Johnson has issued an executive order reducing the state ad valorem levy from four mills to two mills, the rate paid in 1942. This order was issued upon the recommendation of the State Auditor, State Treasurer and Chairman of the State Tax Commission, as the law provides.

Many Farmers in Legislature

Mississippi farmers should get good treatment in the approaching legislative session since it appears that a majority of the House members are farmers, directly or have farming interest. The list compiled shows 59 out of the total membership of 104 to be farmers, and many others closely related to the farm.

Martin Succeeds Coen

Ray H. Martin, of Liberty, has been appointed as assistant superintendent of education by J. S. Vandiver, Martin succeeds H. M. Coen who resigned recently to enter the military service. Mr. Martin is a veteran of World War No. 1, and is a native of Rankin County.

Pardon Board

The State Pardon Board is holding its regular monthly meeting this week, and hearings on petitions for pardon will be conducted. The office of the pardon board is on the fourth floor of the New Capitol.

Gone To War

According to information given out through the Jackson Chamber of Commerce 38 physicians, 17 dentists and 42 nurses have gone from Jackson to the war, and are now rendering service in the respective assignments. The number sent to war from Jackson along these lines is probably about the proportion given by the entire state.

Biggest Crop Effort Planned

Mississippi farmers are being enlisted now in the biggest crop effort in the history of the state. The growing of crops is a vital part of the war effort and this is not confined alone to foodstuff. Just a few days ago the statement was made by a well informed man on national affairs and war needs, that cotton ranks next to steel in the manufacture of war material, hence the importance of growing cotton. The increased farm effort will make a better opportunity for farmers, as it will give more volume to sell and the price will certainly be good. The 1944 crop season will be one of vast interest and importance.

Collect 70 per cent of Taxes

Collections by the State Tax Commission, which collects around 70 per cent of the state taxes, showed a substantial increase in September, 1943 over September 1942, the excess being $532,231, and the total for September 1943, $3,042,765. The sales tax collection for September 1943, was $1,017,733. Collections through the Tax Commission for the first nine months of 1943 exceeded the same period of 1942 by $3,785,888. September collections brought the total balance in the state treasury to approximately $22,000,000.

Movement for Pipe Line

There is a movement in congress to authorize the building of pipe line from Texas through Louisiana and Mississippi and on to the Atlantic Seaboard, making connections for crude oil in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. The proposed pipeline would be about 1,100 miles in length and carry up to 300,000 barrels of crude oil each day.

Raking Around

The world's champion cotton picker is now Buck B. Wesley of Missouri, who won the title at Blytheville, Arkansas a few days ago. Mississippi farmers will be asked to increase their crop acreage for 1944 at least 600,000 acres. Good authority says the average sailor or soldier eats five and a quarter pounds of food per day, while the average civilian eats three and a half pounds daily. . . . Ruth Bryan Owen is another well known speaker who has been added to the list to appear in Jackson on November 9th and 10th, guest of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation. . . . In the second district of Lawrence two candidates received the same number of votes in the second primary, and they are now running it off in the general election. . . . Edward R. Stetinius, Jr., recently appointed Under Secretary of State to succeed Sumner Wells, has been confirmed by the Senate and is now performing his duties in that connection. . . . H. C. Bailey, of Jackson, has been elected president of the Mississippi Real Estate Association. . . . A recount in the recent primary for Mayor of Greenville resulted in a tie vote between Mayor Milton Smith and Edward Gray, and a run-off primary will be necessary to decide the issue. . . . One of the first Fathers drafted under the new procedure was a grandfather.

YOUR SON?

You wouldn't knowingly give information which would cause the death of your son. But how would you feel if you saw him gasping for a last breath and then disappearing forever with only a cap to mark his grave? It's not pleasant to think about, but remember that picture when you start to spread a little "inside dope." Remember also if it's not your son it's someone else's son you may be sending to death. Speak of nothing except what you hear on the radio or read in the papers.

From where I sit

by Joe Marsh

At Joe Marsh's the other day, we were having a glass of beer or two and talking about the kind of world there'd be when Peace came.

"Hear they'll have trans-Atlantic airplanes flyin' regular as taxi service," says Ed Carey.

"Yep," says Will Frost, "and television and plastic cars and air-conditioned homes and super-duper highways."

Finally, Doc Mitchell changes in. "You know," he says, "we're talkin' about the future in terms of luxuries—like air-conditioned houses and television.

"But what really will shape tomorrow's world is what goes on in a man's own heart. ... It's tolerance and understanding."

And from where I sit, Doc's right. Whether it's tolerance of another's politics or respect for a neighbor's right to enjoy a glass of beer occasionally, tolerance is a mighty good thing.

Maybe a peace-time world.

ORTIE THEATRE

WED. THURSDAY "NEXT OF KIN"

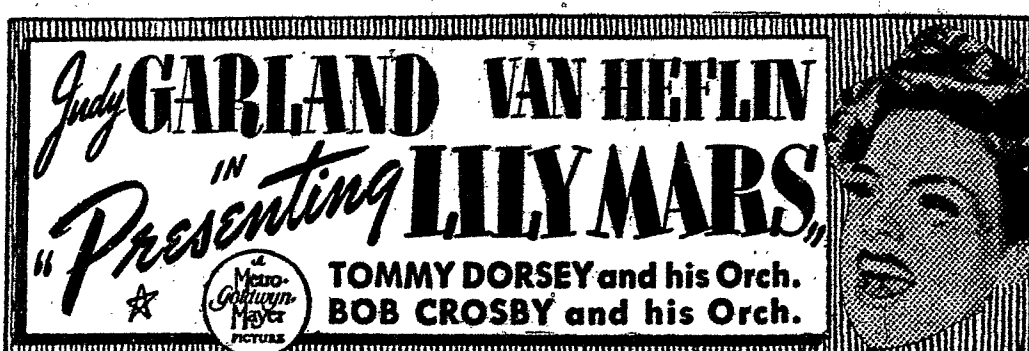

By J. Edgar Hoover, Director of F. B. I.

"Next of Kin" which will open at the Ortie Theatre Wednesday and Thursday after so much advance comment, both here and in England for so many months, is more than a great motion picture. It is living reality, a lesson for these stormy times of ours, driven home with such direct force and clinching logic that it leaves you shaken and wondering whether you have been guilty of thoughtless gabble about the whereabouts of your friends or fellow soldiers in the army, like the captives on the screen. Here is drama of overwhelming power, suspense and pathos.

ORTTE THEATRE

SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"PRESENTING LILY MARS"

Litling melodies mingle with comedy and haunting love story in "Presenting Lily Mars," which brings Judy Garland to the Ortte Theatre, where she is appearing in one of the most intriguing roles of her career. Judy is teamed not with another singing star but with a polished dramatic actor in the person of Van Heflin.

The story is engaging. It deals with a young girl who wants to become a musical comedy star, a producer who cannot see her possibilities, and the various complications that follow when the very resolute young lady sets out to show him the error of his ways.

Judy "crashes" a party, insists on acting Shakespeare for the impresario manages to get his prima donna insanely jealous but finally wins out, takes her place in the spotlight—and wins a husband.

Amid the fun and romance are such hit numbers as "Mirage," executed by Bob Crosby and his band, who figure prominently in the picture; "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son," a hit for Judy; "Kulebakka," exotic number sung by glamorous Marta Eggerth, and others.

Heflin plays the producer who finally yields to Judy's charms and songs and Miss Eggerth is a glamorous figure as the fiery prima donna. Richard Carlson is convincing as a harried young playwright, Spring Byington, Fay Bainter, Connie Gilchrist and others have important roles. Norman Taurag, famous for romances of youth from "Skippy" on, directed. Joseph Pasternak production for M-G-M.

"BOMBER'S MOON"

SUNDAY & MONDAY
AT A. & G. THEATER

This is an action film which follows the pattern of adventure laid down by previous pilots who have crashed in occupied Europe and made their way back to England. Its one notable difference is the presence of Annabella as a Russian Army doctor who takes part in the escape of the American flier.

Production, in the hands of Sol M. Wurtzel, has been well handled from the thrilling Fortress raid which opens the film, to the dogfight at the close, and photography is excellent throughout.

A flying fortress, limping home after a raid over Germany, is set upon by a Nazi fighter whose pilot machine-guns the crew as they bail out. The American pilot makes a forced landing, is captured, goes to prison and escapes with a Czech officer and a Russian Doctor.

The Czech turns out to be a Nazi. The other two fight on reach England. The American pilot shoots down the German fighter pilot in the final sequence.

Director Charles Fuhr has built his story swiftly, with emphasis on action rather than romance. George Montgomery is attractive in the chief role, and Annabella makes a pleasant romantic partner. The soberness of the theme is relieved by their amiable characterizations and touches of humor.

The two young women had just taken the oath of enlistment in the U. S. Naval Reserve Hospital Corps of the WAVES, and judging from their smiles it is hard to tell who is the happier, for Chaplain Walton got special leave and came down all the way from Waterboro to witness the event.

When asked how he felt about his daughter's enlistment, he said, "After seeing just how anxious Gloria was to get into the service and knowing the great need for women to get in and fill the jobs that are being filled by able bodied men who are capable of more active duty, I would feel selfish to deprive her of this privilege, and I am happy to see her enlist in the WAVES."

Miss Howell and Miss Walton are cousins, their mothers are sisters of U. S. Congressman Wm. M. Colmer, of the 6th Congressional Mississippi District.

Miss Howell has two brothers in up Jordan river Sunday afternoon trying for reds and sheepshead.

WITH THE FISHERMEN AND OTHER SPORTS

By KANCHU KETCHUM

IN spite of high tides and unsettled weather, fish have been biting good. Large catches of speckled trout, red fish, ground mullets and sheepshead have been reported as having been caught on both live and dead bait.

Green trout fishing has not been so hot, although some have been caught on the fly rod and plugs.

Red Kimmel who has been home on a ten day furlough with the family has put in most of his time out fishing and hunting. He never misses an opportunity to get out with his gun and dogs and is exceptionally good at killing "cotton tails." Red said, "Gee, it is good to be able to go hunting again."

Look likes Mr. Joe Benedetto is going after the speckles and other salt water fish. He has moved his boat out in front of the bay. He also gets his share of fish with the fly rod.

It looked like old times to see Junior Breath and his family up Jordan River on his boat. Junior was trying his favorite pastime—trotting for speckles.

Others seen out trolling were Push Gex, Roger Boh, Grady Perkins, Frank Cassidy, Joe di Benedetto. They report catching a few nice ones.

Fathers Martin and Clark tried their hand at fly fishing Monday up Pearl River. The odds were against them, but they reported having a great time. However, they returned with a good mess for supper. Father Martin says that if a fly rod was the same as a golf club he could make a good score.

Julian Perre, commercial fisherman has been slaughtering them out in the Bay with the slaughter pole. He says that fish are biting everywhere just now.

Bob Genin, the old master with the fly rod has been catching some beauties of late.

A. G. Favre, and John Mollere report catching 60 speckles up Jordan river one day last week.

Pete Porter was seen up the river last Sunday in his new speed boat. Pete says it is a honey and really goes places.

Jimmi McConnell and friend were

Shrimp for bait have been plentiful of late. Claude Monti reports catching more than his share. He gladly donated some to other fishermen who were glad to get them. Thanks, Claud.

R. H. Steiffel and son made a fishing trip out by the railroad bridge last Sunday. In spite of losing the anchor and other troubles they returned home with a good catch.

EXTEND SEASON FOR DOVE SHOOTING IN LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI

Washington, Oct. 12—The open season for hunting mourning doves in the southeast was lengthened today from 30 to 42 days.

Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes announced that President Roosevelt has signed an amendment to the migratory bird treaty act regulations, lengthening the season in 13 states, including Louisiana and Mississippi and changing the opening date.

Dr. Ira Gabrielson, director for the fish and wildlife service, said the changes were made at the request of state game commissioners and expressed the opinion the longer season is not likely to result in excessive kills. He said there has been a substantial increase in mourning doves in the southeast.

The season in Mississippi now will be December 1-January 11. The season previously was November 20-December 19.
